This is a feast all of its own and is enjoyed year round in here in the WV mountains!!

Local folks loving refer to it as "Trash Can Stew!!"

We serve it buffet style and your guest can watch it come out of the large pot.

The owner learned to cook in a big pot as he went through scouting earning his rank of Eagle over 50 years ago. He would love to share his joy of big pot cooking with your guests!!

This would be a great meal cooked in your campsite and could be an educational event.
